

Dimensions of Poverty

CHAMBERS	CUMMINS	DOYAL & GOUGH	FINNIS	LASSWELL	MAX-NEEF	NUSSBAUM	RAWLS	SCHWARTZ
Dimensions of Deprivation	Domains of Life Satisfaction	Intermediate Needs	Basic Human Values	Human Values	Human Needs	Human Capabilities	Primary Goods	Universal Values
PARTICIPATION	INDICATOR RESEARCH	DEVELOPMENT: BASIC NEEDS	PHILOSOPHY	POLICY SCIENCES	NGO ACTIVISM	PHILOSOPHY	PHILOSOPHY	CROSS-CULTURAL PSYCHOLOGY
Poverty	Material well-being	Nutritional food/water	Bodily life - health vigour and safety	Skill	Subsistence	Life	Rights	Power
Social inferiority	Health	Protective housing	Knowledge	Affection	Protection	Bodily health	Liberties	Achievement
Isolation	Productivity	Work	Skilful performance in work and play	Respect	Affection	Bodily integrity	Opportunities	Hedonism
Physical weakness	Intimacy / friendship	Physical environment	Friendship	Rectitude	Understanding	Senses imagination thought	Income and wealth	Stimulation
Vulnerability	Safety	Healthcare	Marriage	Power	Participation	Emotions	Freedom of movement	Self-direction
Seasonability	Community	Security in childhood	Practical reasonableness	Enlightenment	Leisure	Practical reason	Choice of occupation	Universalism
Powerlessness	Emotional well-being	Significant primary relationships	Harmony with ultimate source of reality	Wealth	Creation	Affiliation	Social bases of self respect	Benevolence
Humiliation		Physical security		Well-being	Identity	Other species	Powers and prerogatives of offices	Tradition
		Economic security			Freedom	Play	and positions of responsibility	Conformity
		Safe birth control / childbearing				Control over one's environment		Security
		Basic education						